

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Monday, the United States of America will make the first landing on the moon; and

WHEREAS, our citizens have anticipated this miraculous achievement; and

WHEREAS, President Nixon requests that Monday, July 21, be a holiday;

THEREFORE, BE IT KNOWN THAT I, FRANK L. FARRAR, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 21, 1969 as a legal state holiday and urge all South Dakotans become acquainted with and view this great feat of the universe.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 8th day of May, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-nine.
